About EIM learning and development.

E.I.M Learning and Development Consult is a management consultancy whose main focus is to provide corporate institutions and organizations with well qualified and professional Interns.

Our Interns, are paired with mentors who are drawn from across the globe, who guide them on their duties thereby ensuring organizational growth and development to any institution privileged to hire them. We also provide High end trainings to Employees of our partners to keep them update with growing industry trends. This is achieved through our global mentorship programs, self- development workshops internship programs and accountability partnership.
